About ISB

Indian School of Business is a premier management institution established in 2001. In a short span of thirteen years, the ISB has successfully pioneered several new trends in management education in India and has established itself as a leading B school across the world. The ISB has a strong pool of research oriented resident faculty and invites high caliber international faculty from reputed B schools to teach in its Post Graduate Programme in Management (PGP)/Executive Education Programmes/Post Graduate Programme in management for Senior Executives (PGPMAX)/Management programme for family Business (MFAB) as well as to participate in collaborative research with the resident faculty.

ISB's vision is to be an internationally top-ranked research driven independent management institution that grooms future leaders for India and the world. The ISB's distinctiveness stems from its unique origins, its innovative academic programmes and its world-class, yet affordable campus.

The Indian School of Business has close affiliations with our associate schools i.e. the London Business School (LBS), the Fletcher school at Tufts University, MIT Sloan School of Management and founding associate schools i.e. Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University, the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania bringing the best of global management practices and thinking into our curriculum.

One School, Two Campuses

The MBA programme will run in parallel at both our campuses as we have set up a second ISB campus at Knowledge City, Mohali. The first academic session at Mohali was 2012-2013.

It is mandatory for students who are coming on exchange to ISB for two terms to be a part of one term at Hyderabad and one term at Mohali.

Class size

There are about 570 students enrolled for Hyderabad campus and 200 students for Mohali campus for the PGP program.

About Hyderabad :

The Indian School of Business (ISB) campus lies on a beautiful site with large boulders, open fields, landscaped areas and lush greenery and is located in Gachibowli. Hyderabad is one of India's most important economic centres and is also gaining much importance in the IT sector.

The city is known for its booming IT & IT Enabled Services, Pharmaceuticals and Entertainment industries. Many call centers, Business process outsourcing (BPO) firms, dealing with IT and other technological services were set up making it one of the major regions for call center setups in India. The development of a township with related technological infrastructure calledHITEC city prompted several IT and ITES companies to set up operations in the city. An aggressive promotion of growth in this area has led civic boosters to call the city Cyberabad. The growth in the IT sector and opening of Rajiv Gandhi International Airport attracted activity in other economic sectors like real estate and infrastructure, healthcare in the 2000s. The city has constantly kept pace with the latest trends and advancements in technology and has acquired the status of a 'cyber city'. The 20th International World Wide Web Conference took place in Hyderabad.

Hyderabad is a city with a perfect blend of the old and the new. A city steeped in culture, whose landscape is dotted with monuments dating to centuries ago such as Golconda fort, Charminar, Chow Mohalla Complex etc. The city has an easy access to other interesting destinations such as Bangalore, Goa, Pondicherry and others

About Chandigarh / Mohali:

Indian School of Business, Mohali campus is located in Knowledge city which is around 14 kms from heart of the city. Chandigarh is a city and union territory in India that serves as the capital of two states, Punjab and Haryana. The name Chandigarh translates as "The Fort of Chandi" and is derived from an ancient temple called Chandi Mandir, devoted to the Hindu goddess Chandi, in the city. It is also referred to as The City Beautiful due to its beautiful surroundings, central grid of gardens, each dedicated to different species of flora.

The city of Chandigarh was the first planned city in India and is known internationally for its architecture and urban design. The city has projects designed by architects such as Le Corbusier, Pierre Jeanneret, Jane Drew, and Maxwell Fry. Chandigarh is close to many tourist destinations such as Shimla, Manali, Palampur, Dharamshala, Dalhousie etc

a) Geography and Climate

Chandigarh is located near the foothills of the Shivalik range of the Himalayas in northwest India. It covers an area of approximately 114 km² and shares its borders with the states of Haryana in the east and Punjab in the north, west and south. The surrounding districts are of Mohali, Patiala and Roopnagar (Ropar) in Punjab and Panchkula and Ambala in Haryana. The boundary of the state of Himachal Pradesh is also minutes away from its north border. Chandigarh, Mohali and Panchkula are collectively referred to as the Tricity.

Chandigarh has a humid subtropical climate characterized by a seasonal rhythm: very hot summers, mild winters, unreliable rainfall and great variation in temperature (-1 °C to 41.2 °C). The average annual rainfall is 1110.7 mm. The city also receives occasional winter rains from the west.

b) Connectivity and Transportation

The Union Territory of Chandigarh is well served by an excellent network of roads. The National Highways No. 21 (Ambala-Kinnaur) and 22 (Chandigarh-Leh) are the chief road arteries linking Chandigarh with the rest of the country.

The Tricity has a new modern 500 passenger Airport terminal and is all set for much better domestic air connectivity. Few International flights are also expected to commence. Currently there are direct flights only to Delhi, Mumbai and Jammu. Flights for Hyderabad and Bangalore do a brief stopover at Delhi. Delhi by train is 3.5 hours away and by road is 4-6 hours depending on the time of the day.
